I never said it was a new development, I am saying it is a term now being appropriated by sperts who were initially told to kill themselves, picked up on the terminology, started repeating it over and over and are now basically saying "PLEASE DIE!" as a form of lashing out for anything they dislike.

I notice anons become obsessed with suicide once they're agitated enough, to me I think anons are projecting their deep desire to die by telling others to kill themselves. I usually see the term used every few times per week, but it's really been spouted with higher frequency since the shitstorm from yesterday. You guys need to talk about your feelings?

Has this ever genuinely worked? I think you guys saying "kill yourself!" should start putting in more effort and linking suicide wikies if you want people to actually attempt suicide, these idiosynchrases are getting too boring and repetitive.

These shitstorms would be avoided if Mark simply offered himself as a martyr ala jesus christ once every year for 8chan anons to take all of their anger out on in real life. Imagine Mark gladly placing his teeth on the concrete so anons could happily curbstomp the teeth out of his skull, or see how many times he can be kicked and punched in the stomach until his torso turns purple like grinance.

Think about it, there is so much repressed tension and rage trapped within all of us that letting it out in short intense bursts of fury will cause so much catharsis, leading to anons bonding over using Mark as a human punching bag and cutting board. Let's make it happen! It's the least he could do for his loyal userbase.

Let's FUCK MARKS SHIT UP!
WHO IS WITH ME!?

>It's another mass psychosis episode where anons accuse each other of being [boogeyman]

You niggers will just start eating each other alive even when all our enemies have been defeated, you can't relax even when everything is okay, you just have to make trouble and jump at each others shadows. I almost don't know what to think about no one giving a fuck about this place, on one hand having a common enemy keeps us united, on the other hand we've create the enemy within each other when there's nothing left to fight, which results in no one knowing what the fuck is happening because it's a constant imageboard war from the inside with no clear perpetrators, usually we figure out who is trying to fuck with us, yet this time around there are no leads, no herdniggers, plw eden fags, jakkers, etc, nothing, just us vs our own. Why?

There is absolutely a valid point in people laughing at this place and its almost braindead userbase of paranoid angst virgins, especially with the various examples littered throughout the past week. At this rate, this place will be unusable, worse yet, Mark doesn't have the intelligence or capability to resolve complex situations like these with new rules and moderation habits. We are as good as fucked if this keeps up.
